

Commercial Whitewater Rafting Monthly Report Form

Directions:

Each outfitter is required to report monthly to the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife the number of raft passengers (excluding guides) carried each day on each rapidly flowing river. In addition, outfitters must pay a fee of $1 for each raft passenger listed on the report and must also report all other commercial passengers (i.e. canoes and kayaks). Both the report and the fee must be submitted by the 30th day of the month following the month in which the passengers were carried.

Rapidly flowing river means the following stretches of river: the Kennebec River between Harris Station and West Forks; the West Branch of the Penobscot River between McKay Station and Pockwockamus Falls; the Dead River from its confluence with Spencer Stream to The Forks at a flow level of 2,400 cfs or higher; and the Rapid River from the outlet of Lower Richardson Lake to ¾ miles upstream from Umbagog Lake.

Penalties for failure to comply with this provision include no renewal, revocation, or suspension of an outfitter's license or allocation or both, or may subject the outfitter to a civil penalty of up to $5,000. In addition, outfitters with an allocation are penalized in the allocation system for each late payment or report.
